ESDAS (EAST SURREY DOMESTIC ABUSE SERVICE)

ROLLING PROGRAMME OF WOMEN'S INFORMAL DROP-IN WORKSHOPS SPECIFIC MONDAYS 10.00AM – NOON (Term Time only)

ESDAS offers an ongoing programme of six workshops to women who are, or have been, in domestic abuse situations. Each of the six Workshops will focus on a specific topic meaning you can choose to come to as many or as few as you wish and have a chance to catch up with any you missed during the following term.

There will be time at the start of the session for informal discussion and relaxation exercises will be offered at the end depending on time available.

The workshops will run on specific dates on Monday between 10.00am and noon in the centre of Redhill and will be repeated through school terms.

Workshops are facilitated by an experienced ESDAS Outreach

Worker and a small team of trained ESDAS volunteers. Some Workshops will be run by external facilitators.

Their aim is to offer you a range of emotional and practical life skills to build self-esteem and confidence and to encourage and empower you to move forward in your recovery.

The workshops are offered free of charge.

They are unable to accommodate school age children as the conversations and content of workshops may be inappropriate. However, if you have pre-school children and are unable to access childcare please give them a call so they can discuss options which may help you to attend.

If you would like any further information on these Workshops please call Anne on 01737 771 350.

SAVINGS ON LOW INCOME – HELP TO SAVE

How it works - Help to Save is a type of savings accounts. It allows certain people entitled to Working Tax Credit or receiving Universal Credit to get a bonus of £0.50p for every £1.00 they save over four years.

How payments work

You can save between £1 and £50 each calendar month. You do not have to pay money in every month.

You can pay money into your Help to Save account by debit card, standing order or bank transfer.

You can pay in as many times as you like, but the most you can pay in each calendar month is £50. For example, if you have saved £50 by 8th January you will not be able to pay in again until 1st February.

You can only withdraw money from your Help to Save account to your bank account. For further information please contact:

<https://www.gov.uk/get-help-savings-low-income>

COUNSELLING

REIGATE COMMUNITY COUNSELLING CENTRE

Reigate Community Counselling Centre is a local counselling service established in 2012 in Reigate, offering counselling to adults for a range of issues including anxiety, anger, low self-esteem, depression, family relationship issues, stress and bereavement. Sessions run throughout the week and are by appointment only. Our counsellors provide a confidential, non-judgemental service aiming to support clients through difficult issues and develop stronger emotional resilience in order to lead more fulfilling lives. They are a registered charity and ask for client contributions to cover their cost based upon a suggested sliding scale dependent on income and what is affordable. Their counsellors offer their time at reduced cost to enable counselling to be available to those in need. Generally, the minimum cost per session is £20.00.
